

and trafficking of children for sexual purposes.

Proposed law provides that if the defendant is alleged to have committed the offense of human trafficking or trafficking of children for sexual purposes, the court, after considering previous criminal history and whether the defendant poses a threat or danger to the public, may prohibit the defendant from engaging in employment that involves any of the following:

- (1) A transportation network company driver.
- (2) Operation of any bus, taxicab, or limousine for hire.
- (3) A service worker who goes into a residence to provide any type of service.
- (4) Operation of any carnival or amusement ride.
- (5) A door-to-door solicitor, peddler, or itinerant vendor selling any type of goods or services including magazines or periodicals or subscriptions to magazines or periodicals.
- (6) Supervisory or disciplinary authority over children.
- (7) Operation or participation in the governance of any early learning center, residential home, or residence in which child care services are provided by a family child care provider or in-home provider.

Effective August 1, 2026.
