

---

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

---

HB 339 Original

2026 Regular Session

Chassion

Abstract: Provides for the protection of the personal information of current law enforcement officers.

Present law authorizes a protected individual to request a public body or third party to not publish or remove from a publication certain personal information. Defines "protected individual" to include a current or retired justice of the La. Supreme Court or a current or retired judge of an appellate, district, family, juvenile, parish, city, or municipal court established under the Constitution of La., a current or retired justice or judge of a federal court domiciled in the state, a current or retired magistrate appointed by a state court, a current or retired U.S. magistrate judge domiciled in the state, a current or retired commissioner or hearing officer of any district court in the state, a current or retired district attorney, assistant district attorney, district attorney investigator, a current member of the legislature, a current statewide elected official, or a current member of the public service commission.

Proposed law retains present law and further includes current law enforcement officers as protected individuals.

Present law defines "personal information" as the home address, home and mobile telephone number, personal email address, social security number, driver's license number, federal tax identification number, bank account numbers, credit or debit card number, license plate number or unique identifier of a vehicle, marital record, date of birth, school or daycare of a child, or place of worship of a protected individual and the employment location of a spouse, child, or dependent of a protected individual. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides that present law does not apply to personal information on records publicly posted by the office of the secretary of state. Proposed law retains present law.

(Adds R.S. 44:11.2(A)(10))