HB 381 Original

2026 Regular Session

Jordan

Abstract: Makes a company ineligible for the High Impact Jobs Program if a certain number of its employees qualify for SNAP benefits.

Present law provides for the High Impact Jobs Program.

Present law provides for the eligibility of companies in the High Impact Jobs Program.

Proposed law adds that a company that has 20% or more of La. employees who qualify for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), shall be ineligible for participation in the program.

Proposed law further provides that LED shall coordinate with the La. Dept. of Health to access the required information to implement proposed law.
