SENATE BILL NO. 230

BY SENATOR BARROW

EMPLOYMENT. Constitutional amendment to establish a state livable wage. (2/3-CA13s1(A)) (1/1/27)

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION

2 Proposing to add Article XII, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to a state
3 livable wage; to establish a state livable wage for all employers effective January 1, 4 2027; to authorize the legislature, by law, to create the state livable wage and provide 5 exemptions; and to specify an election for submission of the proposition to electors 6 and provide a ballot proposition.

7 Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members 8 elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for 9 their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to add Article XII,
10 Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:

11 §18. State Livable Wage

12 Section 18.(A) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, every 13 employer shall pay their employees a livable wage rate of ten dollars and 14 twenty-five cents per hour beginning January 1, 2027. On each September 30th, 15 beginning in 2027, the state livable wage rate shall be increased, effective the 16 following January first, by the rate of inflation for the twelve-month period
17 prior to that September according to the Consumer Price Index or its successor

1 index for all urban wage earners and clerical workers for all items as calculated 2 by the federal government rounded to the nearest five cents.

3 (B) Employees under the age of sixteen and employees of businesses with 4 annual gross receipts of three hundred thousand dollars or less for the 5 preceding year shall be paid a wage rate of not less than that established under 6 the federal Fair Labor Standards Act or its successor law. This gross receipts 7 figure shall be increased each year beginning January 1, 2028, by the change in 8 the Consumer Price Index or its successor index in the same manner as the 9 required annual adjustment in the livable wage rate set forth in this Section 10 rounded to the nearest one thousand dollars.

11 (C) An employer may pay an employee less than, but not less than half, 12 the livable wage rate required by this Section if the employer is able to 13 demonstrate that the employee receives tips that combined with the wages paid 14 by the employer are equal to or greater than the livable wage rate for all hours 15 worked.

16 (D) The provisions of this Section may not apply to employees of a solely 17 family-owned and operated business who are family members of an owner.

18 (E) The state may issue licenses to employers authorizing payment of a 19 wage rate below that required by this Section to individuals with mental or 20 physical disabilities that may otherwise adversely affect their opportunity for 21 employment.

22 Section 2. Be it further resolved that the proposed amendment shall be submitted to 23 the electors of the state of Louisiana at the statewide election to be held on November 3, 24 2026.

25 Section 3. Be it further resolved that on the official ballot to be used at said election
26 there shall be printed a proposition, upon which the electors of the state shall be permitted 27 to vote YES or NO, to amend the Constitution of Louisiana, which proposition shall read as 28 follows:

29 Do you support an amendment to establish a state livable wage at the rate of

1 ten dollars and twenty-five cents per hour effective January 1, 2027, that may 2 be increased by the rate of inflation?

DIGEST

SB 230 Original

2026 Regular Session

Barrow

Proposed constitutional amendment establishes a livable wage that every employer will be required to pay each employee. Proposed constitutional amendment sets the state livable hourly wage rate at $10.25. Proposed constitutional amendment provides an effective date of January 1, 2027.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that the state livable wage rate will be increased by rate of inflation for the 12-month period prior to that September according to the Consumer Price Index or its successor index.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides exceptions for employers whose employees are tipped employees, family members, or mental or physically disabled.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on November 3, 2026.

(Adds Const. Art. XII, Sec. 18)
