HB 603 Original

2026 Regular Session

Wright

Abstract: Authorizes the investment of state funds in digital assets and precious metals

Present constitution prohibits the loaning, donating, or pledging of state funds, credit, property, or things of value belonging to the state or a political subdivision. Prohibits the state and a political subdivision from purchasing stock of a corporation.

Present constitution authorizes certain uses of state property and funds.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution and authorizes the state to invest state funds in digital assets and precious metals.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held November 3, 2026.

(Amends Const. Art. III, §14(B))
