SB 346 Original

DIGEST
2026 Regular Session

Barrow

Proposed law prohibits a student, faculty member, member of the administrative staff or other employee at an elementary or secondary school from using deepfake material against a student enrolled in K-12, with the intent to coerce, harass, intimidate, or maliciously disseminate or sell the material.

Proposed law provides for the definition of "Deepfake".

Proposed law authorizes BESE, in collaboration with the Dept. of Education, to develop and adopt rules and regulations to implement the provisions of proposed law.

Effective on August 1, 2026.
