HB 976 Original

2026 Regular Session

Taylor

Abstract: Creates a presumption of liability for recklessly throwing from a parade float.

Proposed law prohibits throwing an object from a parade float in a manner that is foreseeable to cause injury to another person.

Proposed law creates a presumption of liability when someone recklessly throws an object from a parade float and injures another person.

Proposed law clarifies that proposed law does not affect what items may be thrown from a parade float.
