DIGEST

SB 220 Reengrossed

2026 Regular Session

Talbot

Present law provides that the secretary of state shall take all necessary actions for the acts and joint resolutions of the legislature to be accessible on the internet and the Official Journal of the State.

Proposed law removes the requirement to make acts and resolutions accessible on the internet website or portal of the Official Journal of the State and requires the secretary of state to transmit the acts and joint resolutions of the legislature to the Official Journal of the State.

Effective August 1, 2026.
