4 to report its findings to the House of Representative no later than January 4, 2027.

5 WHEREAS, judgment debtors may have insufficient or defective service of process 6 resulting in a lack of actual notice regarding judgment debtor examination proceedings; and

7 WHEREAS, Code of Civil Procedure Article 2456 provides that "if the motion and 8 order have been served personally on the judgment debtor, as provided by law or if service 9 is obtained pursuant to Article 1261, and the judgment debtor refuses to appear for the 10 examination or to produce his books, papers, or other documents when ordered to do so, or 11 if he refuses to answer any question held pertinent by the court, the judgment debtor may be 12 punished for contempt"; and

13 WHEREAS, judges are authorized to issue civil bench warrants to compel a 14 judgment debtor to appear in court; and 15 WHEREAS, there are no uniform procedures governing the issuance and recalls of 16 civil bench warrants for a failure to appear at judgment debtor examinations; and
