HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 93

BY REPRESENTATIVE MARCELLE

A RESOLUTION

To commend Myrtle V. Willis on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday.

WHEREAS, it is most fitting to recognize Myrtle V. Willis for her inspiring longevity and to commend her on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday; and

WHEREAS, Myrtle V. Willis was born on April 14, 1926, in Assumption Parish, Louisiana, where she is one of the oldest residents and a living testament to strength, resilience, and God's enduring grace; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Willis is a constant source of love, wisdom, and guidance for her family; she is the only living child of Winnie and Charles Hall, Sr., and carries a unique and treasured legacy which honors the generations before her and continues to inspire those who follow her; and

WHEREAS, throughout her life, Ms. Willis embraced her role as a devoted wife and mother with grace and dignity; she and her late husband built a family rooted in faith and love, and she cherishes the memories of those who passed before her, including her husband and children: James Jr., Annette, James III, and Vivian; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Willis is deeply loved by her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, and they are blessed by her kindness, gentle spirit, and unwavering presence as they continue to honor her legacy of love; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Willis is a devoted Christian who has trusted in God through every stage of her life and found strength, comfort, and peace in her faith; her life is a testimony to her immense faith, and she serves as a shining example of love, perseverance, and devotion to all who know her; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Willis once found great joy baking homemade cakes and pies, which filled her home with warmth and sweetness; these cherished moments have created lasting memories for her family; and

WHEREAS, Myrtle V. Willis is most deserving of the highest recognition for her incredible life, especially as she reaches this inspiring milestone.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend Myrtle V. Willis on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday and does hereby extend sincere wishes that she remain prosperous as she begins a new chapter in life as a member of the exclusive club of Louisiana centenarians.
