1 A RESOLUTION

2 To commend and celebrate Rosa Mae Briley Pitre on the momentous occasion of her one 3 hundredth birthday.

4 WHEREAS, it is most fitting to recognize Rosa Pitre for her incredible life and to 5 commend and celebrate her on the occasion of her one hundredth birthday; and

6 WHEREAS, Rosa was born on June 9, 1926, in Grand Prairie, Louisiana, to Lee and 7 Clemence Briley, and following the untimely passing of her first husband, Calvin Fontenot, 8 she was later married to Harry Pitre; and

9 WHEREAS, she is the proud and loving mother of five children: David Paul 10 Fontenot, Arlene Pitre Coreil, Janice Pitre Colligan, Peggy Pitre Tate, and John Pitre; and

11 WHEREAS, Rosa was a devoted housewife and worked as a skilled seamstress, 12 reliable telephone operator, and a respected department manager for West Bros.; and

13 WHEREAS, she is a woman of deep and abiding faith, a devout Catholic and a 14 faithful member of Sacred Heart Church in Ville Platte, Louisiana, who prays the Rosary on 15 a daily basis and receives Holy Communion every week; and

16 WHEREAS, Rosa currently resides at the Village de Memoire in Ville Platte; and

17 WHEREAS, reaching the remarkable milestone of one hundred years is a rare and 18 extraordinary achievement, one that reflects a life richly lived and a legacy that will continue
