HOUSE BILL NO. 315

BY REPRESENTATIVE MELERINE

CONTRACTS: Provides relative to noncompete contracts or agreements for interns and apprentices

1 AN ACT

2 To enact R.S. 23:921(P), relative to noncompete contracts or agreements; to prohibit
3 noncompete contracts, agreements, or provisions for interns and apprentices; to 4 provide for confidentiality agreements and certain employment information and
5 agreements; and to provide for related matters.

6 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

7 Section 1. R.S. 23:921(P) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

8 §921. Restraint of business prohibited; restraint on forum prohibited; competing 9 business; contracts against engaging in; provisions for

11 P. Notwithstanding any provision of this Section to the contrary, there shall 12 be no contract or agreement or provision entered into by an intern, whether paid or 13 unpaid, or apprentice and his employer restraining the intern or apprentice from 14 engaging in a business or an employment similar to that of the employer. The 15 contract or agreement or provision shall not restrict an intern or apprentice from 16 pursuing employment, educational, or professional opportunities following the 17 completion of the internship or apprenticeship. The intern or apprentice shall,
18 however, remain subject to the employer's confidentiality, intellectual property, and 19 data protection agreements.

Melerine

Abstract: Prohibits noncompete contracts and agreements for interns and apprentices.

Present law provides that, generally, every contract or agreement or provision that restrains a person from exercising a lawful profession, trade, or business shall be null and void. However, present law provides an illustrative list of exceptions where noncompete contracts and agreements are permitted.

Proposed law prohibits noncompete contracts, agreements, or provisions for unpaid or paid interns and apprentices.

Proposed law prohibits noncompete contracts, agreements, or provisions from restricting an intern or apprentice from pursuing employment, educational, or professional opportunities following the completion of the internship or apprenticeship.

Proposed law states that an intern or apprentice shall remain subject to the employer's confidentiality, intellectual property, and data protections agreements.
