Proposed law authorizes the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority (CPRA) to procure and award Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity (ID/IQ) construction phase and supply contracts for integrated coastal protection projects and related work. Proposed law allows for single or multiple awards using low bid, qualifications-based, or best value selection methods, and provides for procurement through notices of intent and requests for proposals. Contracts may include multiple work orders or purchase orders issued over time, with terms not to exceed 10 years, including extensions. Proposed law establishes procedures for solicitation, evaluation, award, and contract administration, and provides that its provisions supersede conflicting state procurement laws where applicable.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority (CPRA) reports that proposed law may result in an indeterminable decrease in expenditures out of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Fund due to faster project delivery associated with the ability to acquire Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity (ID/IQ) construction phase and supply contracts. It is currently unknown how often or for which projects CPRA will utilize such contracts for. The LFO believes that while cost savings are possible, any such impact on expenditures is speculative and will still rely on market factors. The LFO assumes CPRA will utilize the most cost effective approach based on the specific circumstances of each procurement.

The Division of Administration (DOA) reports no anticipated direct material effect on DOA expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION
