11 §176. Limitation of time for presenting pari-mutuel tickets and disposition of 12 unclaimed monies

13 * * *

14 B. The sum held by any licensee for payment of outstanding winning
 15 pari-mutuel tickets and for refunding the price of pari-mutuel tickets shall be retained
 16 by such licensee for such purpose until the expiration of ninety days after the close 17 of the race meeting conducted by the licensee. One hundred days after the close of 18 any race meeting, the licensee shall each day accumulate the amount equal to the 19 sum of the unclaimed monies that expire that day. On or before the fifteenth day of 20 the first month following the end of a calendar-year quarter, the licensee shall remit 21 less the amount of state tax paid by the licensee on such unclaimed monies, to the 22 state treasurer for deposit into the Crime ~~Victims—Reparations~~ Victims'
 23 Compensation Fund as provided for in R.S. 46:1816(B)(8) an amount equal to the 24 accumulated total for the previous calendar-year quarter. Such funds shall be used
 25 exclusively to pay the expenses associated with ~~health-care~~ healthcare services of 26 victims of sexually oriented criminal offenses, including forensic medical
 27 examinations as defined in R.S. 15:622.

28 * * *

1 Section 2. R.S. 10:9-406(i) and 9-408(f) are hereby amended and reenacted to read
2 as follows:

3 §9-406. Discharge of account debtor; notification of assignment; identification and 4 proof of assignment; restrictions on assignment of accounts, chattel paper,
5 payment intangibles, and promissory notes ineffective

6 * * *

7 (i) Inapplicability. This Section does not apply to an assignment of a health-
8 care-insurance receivable. This Section further does not apply to an assignment of 9 any pension, disability, annuity, retirement or other benefit, distribution or allowance
10 right or payment from any governmental retirement system or pension fund or any
11 other governmental unit, workers' compensation claims or payments, unemployment
12 compensation benefits, public assistance payments, crime victim ~~reparations~~
13 compensation, or lottery payments.

14 * * *

15 §9-408. Restrictions on assignment of promissory notes, health-care-insurance
16 receivables, and certain general intangibles ineffective

17 * * *

18 (f) Inapplicability. This Section does not apply to an assignment of any 19 pension, disability, annuity, retirement or other benefit, distribution or allowance
20 right or payment from any governmental retirement system or pension fund or any
21 other governmental unit, workers' compensation claims or payments, unemployment

25 Section 3. R.S. 15:574.4.2(C)(1), 705(C)(3)(a) and (D)(3), 874(7), 875(E), and 1223
26 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

27 §574.4.2. Decisions of committee on parole; nature, order, and conditions of parole;
28 rules of conduct; infectious disease testing

29 * * *

1 C.(1)(a) When a victim of the crime for which parole is being considered has
 2 suffered a direct pecuniary loss other than damage to or loss of property, the parole
 3 committee may impose as a condition of parole that restitution be made to the victim.
 4 When such a condition is imposed, the committee shall consider the defendant's 5 ability to pay and shall not revoke parole based upon this condition unless the 6 parolee has willfully failed to comply. When the victim's loss consists of damage to 7 or loss of property, the committee shall impose as a condition of parole payment of 8 restitution, either in a lump sum or in monthly installments based on the earning 9 capacity and assets of the defendant. If the victim was paid for such property loss
 10 or damage with monies from the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation
 11 Fund, the committee shall order the parolee to make such payments as 12 reimbursement to the fund in the same amount as was paid from the fund to the 13 victim. This condition of parole shall continue until such time as the restitution is 14 paid or the parolee is discharged from parole in accordance with R.S. 15:574.6.

15 (b) If restitution to the victim is ordered as a condition of parole in 16 accordance with the provisions of this Subsection and the victim cannot be located
 17 by the probation and parole officer within one year after the condition is imposed,
 18 the defendant shall direct the restitution payments to the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~
 19 Victims' Compensation Fund as provided for in R.S. 46:1816.

20 * * *

21 §705. Food and clothing provisions for prisoners; payment of incarceration 22 expenses; payment of medical expenses; imposition of restitution on 23 offenders

24 * * *

25 C.

26 * * *

27 (3)(a) Each governing authority shall establish written rules for the collection
 28 of such expenses from the inmate, including freezing assets in his drawing account
 29 and prohibiting withdrawals therefrom until the expenses are paid. The drawing

1 account may be frozen regardless of the source of the assets contained therein.
 2 Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the governing authority shall 3 promulgate rules and regulations regarding reimbursement by the inmate for medical 4 expenses incurred by the governing authority for the inmate's treatment, including
 5 a requirement that the inmate file a claim with his private medical or ~~health care~~
 6 healthcare insurer or any public medical assistance program, under which he is 7 covered and from which the inmate may make a claim for payment or reimbursement
 8 of the cost of any such medical treatment. This Subsection ~~shall~~ does not prohibit 9 the withdrawal of funds for the purpose of payments under the Crime ~~Victims~~
 10 ~~Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation Act, court costs as authorized by law, and other 11 withdrawals specifically authorized by the sheriff, in that order.

12 * * *

13 D.

14 * * *

15 (3) Each law enforcement district may adopt an ordinance authorizing the 16 chief law enforcement officer of the district to collect such restitution from the 17 inmate. The ordinance may provide for the freezing of assets in his drawing account
 18 and prohibit withdrawals therefrom until the expenses are paid. The drawing 19 account may be frozen regardless of the source of the assets contained ~~therein~~ in the 20 account. This Subsection ~~shall~~ does not prohibit the withdrawal of funds for the 21 purpose of payments under the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation
 22 Act, court costs as authorized by law, other payments required by the sentencing
 23 judge, and other withdrawals specifically authorized by the chief law enforcement 24 officer of the district, in that order.

25 * * *

26 §874. Compensation account

27 The inmate's compensation account shall be handled and accounted for as 28 follows:

29 * * *

1 (7) Upon presentation to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections
2 of a court order or a certified copy of an extract of the minutes of a court proceeding
3 showing that an inmate was convicted and was assessed court costs, along with a 4 letter from the sheriff itemizing the costs assessed and verifying which of the costs
5 were not paid, the department shall withdraw funds from any of the inmate's
6 accounts for the payment of court costs due. All collected funds ~~so collected~~ shall 7 be forwarded to the court that assessed the costs; however, if the inmate has not paid
8 the costs assessed in accordance with ~~the Crime Victims Reparations~~ Victims'
9 Compensation Act, R.S. 46:1801, et seq., those costs shall be collected and shall be 10 credited directly to the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation Fund, 11 R.S. 46:1816, after all other costs are paid. The department shall notify the court if 12 the costs for the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation Fund have been 13 collected. The funds in an inmate's accounts shall not be reduced by more than 14 seventy-five percent in accordance with this Section.

* * *

16 §875. Imposition of restitution on offenders; procedures

* * *

18 E. The amount of restitution may be obtained from an offender by freezing
19 assets in his drawing and savings account and prohibiting withdrawals therefrom 20 until the restitution is paid, whether from these accounts or from any other source by 21 any other appropriate means. The accounts may be frozen regardless of the source 22 of the assets contained therein and specifically including any assets of a juvenile sent 23 to him by his parent or guardian and placed in his accounts. This Subsection ~~shall~~ 24 does not prohibit the withdrawal of funds for the purpose of payments under the 25 Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims' Compensation Act, court costs as authorized by 26 law, and other withdrawals specifically authorized by the warden or by the 27 superintendent if the warden is unavailable, in that order.

* * *

1 exclusively to pay the expenses associated with ~~health care~~ healthcare services of
2 victims of sexually oriented criminal offenses, including forensic medical
3 examinations as defined in R.S. 15:622.

4 * * *

5 §394. Ninety-day time period to claim jackpot ticket; collection and use of funds

6 * * *

7 C. After such time, the licensee shall each day accumulate the amount equal
8 to the sum of any unclaimed monies, less the amount of state tax paid by the licensee
9 on the unclaimed monies that expire that day. On or before the fifteenth day of the 10 first month following the end of a calendar-year quarter, the licensee shall remit to 11 the state treasurer for deposit into the Crime ~~Victims Reparations~~ Victims'
12 Compensation Fund as provided for in R.S. 46:1816(B)(8) an amount equal to the

Abstract: Provides relative to compensation for victims of criminal offenses.

Proposed law amends provisions of Titles 4, 10, 15, 27, 32, 36, 40, 44, and 46 of the La. R.S. of 1950, the Code of Criminal Procedure, and the Children's Code to reflect the proposed law change of references to all of the following terminology:

- (1) "Reparations" to "compensation".
- (2) "Crime Victims Reparations Fund" to "Crime Victims' Compensation Fund".
- (3) "Crime Victims Reparations Board" to "Crime Victims' Compensation Board".
- (4) The removal of any reference to "catastrophic property loss".

Present law (R.S. 46:1803, 1808, 1811, 1814, 1815, 1818, 1820, and 1821) provides for the Crime Victims Reparation Board, board procedures, reparation orders, the effect of a reparations award on the right to recover damages in a civil action, repayment of award, recovery from a criminal, a report to the legislature and governor, attorney fees, and a limitation of liability for the state.

Proposed law generally retains and restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1802) provides for definitions.

Proposed law generally retains present law and provides for the following:

- (1) Restructures the definitions of "child" and "victim".
- (2) Within the definition of "claimant", adds more individuals who are eligible to file an application for compensation under present law.
- (3) Within the definition of "collateral source":
 - (a) Provides that wage continuation programs of an employer do not include vacation and sick leave benefits.
 - (b) Adds damages recovered from the offender or any other third party as a result of a civil suit.
- (4) Within the definition of "pecuniary loss", adds the following as expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred by reason of the personal injury or death suffered by the victim as follows:
 - (a) Clothing, bedding, or property of the victim seized as evidence or rendered unusable as a direct result of a criminal investigation.
 - (b) Temporary lodging or permanent relocation when immediate relocation is necessary for the health and safety of the victim or the victim's household member.

- (c) Costs associated with the removal of a tattoo the victim received through fraud, force, or coercion as a direct result of a human trafficking-related offense.
- (5) Adds definitions for "family member", "forensic medical examination", "household member", "human trafficking-related offense", "La. resident", "person", and "personal injury".

Present law (R.S. 46:1804) provides for eligibility applications.

Proposed law amends present law to remove the condition that a person believe he is a victim of a crime and provides that a person who is a victim of a crime or a claimant is eligible to apply for compensation under proposed law. Further restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1805) provides for crimes applicable to present law.

Proposed law adds sexually oriented offenses as applicable crimes and restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1806) provides for application requirements.

Proposed law amends present law as follows:

- (1) Changes the time period for filing from one year to three years and provides this periods begins from the date the crime is committed.
- (2) Within the term "reasonable documentation", provides that this term includes the following:
 - (a) A report from law enforcement, rather than a police report.
 - (b) Court records pertaining to the crime, rather than evidencing the criminal prosecution.
 - (c) An attestation from a healthcare provider who conducted an examination of the personal injury suffered by the victim.
 - (d) An attestation from a healthcare provider or coroner who conducted a forensic medical examination on the victim.
- (3) Removes certain certifications and documentation that are considered "reasonable documentation".
- (4) Removes provisions of present law relative to the time periods to submit an application when the offense is homicide, when the offender of a homicide offense dies, and when the offense is a sexually oriented criminal offense.
- (5) Relative to information submitted to the board as part of an application, adds itemized billing statements as documents to be submitted.
- (6) Restructures the provisions of present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1807) provides for powers and duties of the board.

Proposed law amends present law as follows:

- (1) Removes responsibility of the board as it pertains to present law, relative to victims of vehicular homicide.

- (2) Removes a duplicative requirement that the board prepare and distribute application forms.
- (3) Removes the permissive ability of the board to promulgate rules.
- (4) Requires the board to maintain a current list of websites, rather than a record, for crime victims' compensation programs in other states and territories of the U.S. for La. residents who were victimized outside of La. Further provides that the board is not required to maintain a current list of websites for crime victims' compensation programs in other countries.
- (5) Requires the board to make the list electronically available on the website of the La. Commission on Law Enforcement and Admin. of Criminal Justice (LCLE).
- (6) Removes an incorrect cross-reference and restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1809) provides for the criteria for making awards.

Proposed law amends present law as follows:

- (1) Removes a provision that requires the granting of a partial award over a total denial when one part of an award is denied.
- (2) Provides, as a condition for the denial of an award, that the failure or refusal of the victim or claimant to cooperate substantially with reasonable requests of appropriate law enforcement officials has to occur during the course of the criminal investigation.
- (3) Removes the ability of the board to deny or reduce an award to the extent that the pecuniary loss is recouped from collateral or other sources.
- (4) Removes the board's authorization to deny compensation to a victim who was injured or killed while incarcerated prior to a conviction if it is subsequently determined that the victim was guilty of the offense that resulted in his incarceration.
- (5) Restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1810) provides for award amounts.

Proposed law retains the maximum amounts of $15,000 in the aggregate and $25,000 in the aggregate if the personal injury suffered by a victim results in a permanent and total disability to the victim.

Proposed law removes a prohibition on the maximum award amount in excess of the total amount of costs levied, collected, and remitted by that parish to the LCLE as required by present law (R.S. 46:1816(D)) for the preceding two fiscal years prior to the date of the crime that warrants an award under present law, or $10,000, whichever is greater.

Proposed law further removes an exception based on the board's determination that a qualified claimant would suffer severe and undue hardship if economic relief is not provided.

Present law (R.S. 46:1813) provides for emergency awards.

Proposed law retains the maximum emergency award amount of $1,000. Further removes the ability of the board to waive all or part of the repayment if the repayment of an emergency award that exceeded the final award would cause severe financial hardship.

Present law (R.S. 46:1816) provides for the creation of the Crime Victims Reparations Fund.

Proposed law amends present law as follows:

- (1) Provides that monies deposited from the collection of unclaimed prize money as provided in present law (R.S. 4:176 and R.S. 27:94, 252, 394, and 610) be used exclusively to pay certain expenses and the reasonable costs to effectuate the purposes of present law. Further provides that the reasonable costs provided in present law are limited to a salary for one full-time employee.
- (2) Removes provisions of present law relative to certain fiscal years and the specifically enumerated expenses that monies in the fund were required to cover for those years.
- (3) Requires, rather than permits, that monies directed to the fund pursuant to present law be used to pay restitution owed to a victim pursuant to present law who applies for recovery of the restitution funds pursuant to present law.
- (4) Restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1817) provides for notification to potential applicants.

Proposed law generally retains present law and removes a provision that requires every hospital and healthcare provider to make a pamphlet containing an explanation of the billing process for services rendered available to hospitals and healthcare providers.

Present law (R.S. 46:1819) provides for a penalty of fraud consisting of a maximum fine of $500 and a maximum imprisonment term of one year.

Proposed law changes the maximum term of imprisonment from one year to six months.

Present law (R.S. 46:1822) provides for forensic medical exams.

Proposed law amends present law as follows:

- (1) Removes the board as the entity responsible for reimbursement of forensic medical examinations and provides that no order, decision, or determination of the board is needed as a condition of payment.
- (2) Provides that the personnel employed by the LCLE to carry out the functions of the board and effectuate the purposes of present law have sole authority to make any decision or determination regarding a request for reimbursement.

Present law (R.S. 46:1851) provides for definitions.

Proposed law removes the definition for the term "catastrophic property damage" and restructures the provisions of present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1853) provides for the distribution of escrow account funds.

Proposed law retains and restructures present law.

Present law (R.S. 46:1831.1-1831.16) provides for the "Victims of Vehicular Homicide Act" and further provides for definitions, eligibility, applicability, decision-making, award amounts, the creation and maintenance of a fund, recovery from offenders, prohibitions, penalties, reporting, limited liability, and termination provisions.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Administration of Criminal Justice to the original bill:

1. Add a stepsibling within the definitions of "claimant" and "family member".
2. Clarify that a victim or claimant cannot be denied or deemed ineligible for compensation for any conviction, adjudication of delinquency, or status as a probationer or parolee that is unrelated to the crime that would entitle the victim or claimant to compensation.
3. Include victims, rather than only claimants, relative to receipt of compensation from a collateral source and reimbursement from the Crime Victims' Compensation Fund.
4. Add a service provider as a payable entity from the treasurer when a compensation order has been rendered.
5. Clarify that any other third party can be civilly sued to recover damages for the personal injury or death suffered by the victim.
6. Remove the requirement of the Crime Victims' Compensation Board relative to setting standards for the location of the display posters that provide notification of the existence of the crime victim's compensation program.
7. Make technical changes.
