3 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated, was founded on November 17,
4 1911, at Howard University in Washington, D.C., by three visionary undergraduate students,
5 Edgar Amos Love, Oscar James Cooper, and Frank Coleman, and their faculty advisor, 6 Dr. Ernest Everett Just; and

7 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi was the first national fraternity to be established at a
8 historically Black university, and its name derives from the Greek phrase meaning 9 "friendship is essential to the soul", which also serves as the fraternity's motto; and

10 WHEREAS, from its inception, the fraternity has worked to build a strong and 11 effective force of men dedicated to the cardinal principles of Manhood, Scholarship, 12 Perseverance, and Uplift, and has given expression to the hopes and aspirations of an unfree 13 people in the land of the free; and

14 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi has chartered more than seven hundred fifty 15 undergraduate and graduate chapters and initiated more than two hundred fifty thousand men 16 into its brotherhood, with chapters operating across the United States and internationally; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, in 1930, Omega Psi Phi became one of five founding members of the 19 National Pan-Hellenic Council, which today is composed of nine international Black 20 Greek-letter sororities and fraternities and promotes cooperative programming and initiatives 21 for the benefit of African American communities; and

1 WHEREAS, since 1945, the fraternity has undertaken a National Social Action
2 Program to meet the needs of African Americans in the areas of health, housing, civil rights, 3 and education, and has been a patron of the United Negro College Fund since 1955; and

4 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi men were actively involved in the fight to eliminate 5 racial discrimination; brothers Spottswood Robinson, Oliver Hill, and James Nabrit served
6 as part of the inner circle of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, and Omega 7 men throughout the United States participated in sit-ins and other demonstrations central to 8 the civil rights struggle; and

9 WHEREAS, brother Grant Reynolds played a major role in President Truman's 10 landmark 1948 decision to desegregate the United States Armed Forces, and Brother Bayard 11 Rustin served as the chief organizer of the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and 12 Freedom, which was one of the largest civil rights demonstrations in American history; and

13 WHEREAS, the roll of distinguished Omega members spans every sector of 14 American life, including Dr. Carter G. Woodson, the "Father of Black History"; 15 Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, mentor to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.; Dr. Charles Drew, who 16 revolutionized blood banking; and the Reverend Jesse L. Jackson, founder of Operation 17 PUSH and the National Rainbow Coalition; and

18 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi has maintained a proud and enduring presence in 19 Louisiana for over a century; the Rho Omega Chapter in Shreveport was established in 20 September 1923 and stands as the oldest graduate chapter in the Ninth District; the chapter 21 has made a tremendous impact on the social, economic, civic, and political life of its 22 community; and

23 WHEREAS, the Rho Phi Chapter, which is known as the "Crescent City Ques", was 24 established in New Orleans on October 1, 1927, and has enjoyed nearly one hundred years 25 of dedicated service to the Greater New Orleans community; and

26 WHEREAS, the Lambda Alpha Chapter was organized on May 8, 1936, in Baton
27 Rouge; in 1946, the chapter was at the forefront of forming the Baton Rouge Inter-Fraternal 28 Council, whose initial service projects included voter registration in the community and the 29 investigation of government housing for returning veterans; and

1 WHEREAS, the Theta Kappa Chapter at Louisiana State University was chartered
2 on March 12, 1977, and became the first National Pan-Hellenic Council lettered fraternity
3 on the LSU campus; it is the founding chapter of LSU's National Pan-Hellenic Council and 4 stands as a trailblazer for Black Greek life in Baton Rouge; and

5 WHEREAS, May 5, 2026, marks the sixty-eighth anniversary of the founding of the 6 Delta Tau Chapter and is designated as Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated, Day at the 7 state capitol; the day serves as a tribute to the chapter's decades of faithful service to the city 8 of Plaquemine, Iberville Parish, and the greater Baton Rouge area, and stewards the 9 fraternity's legacy across generations of brothers who have served as beacons of hope to their 10 community; and

11 WHEREAS, Omega Psi Phi chapters throughout Louisiana have continuously served 12 their communities through scholarship programs, voter registration drives, youth mentorship, 13 health initiatives, and civic engagement, embodying the fraternity's timeless cardinal 14 principles across generations; and

15 WHEREAS, the values of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated, are reflected in 16 the halls of the Legislature of Louisiana, where initiated brothers currently serve the people
17 of this state with distinction, including Senator James Harris, Senator Larry Selders, 18 Representative Marcus Bryant, Representative Kyle Green, Representative Rashid Young, 19 Representative Terry Landry Jr., and Representative Stephen Jackson; they each carry the 20 bond of brotherhood into their public service and their commitment to the betterment of all 21 Louisianans; and

22 WHEREAS, on May 5, 2026, members of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated, 23 from across the state of Louisiana gather at the state capitol to reaffirm their commitment
24 to service, brotherhood, and the uplift of all Louisianans and to celebrate the sixty-eighth 25 anniversary of the founding of the Delta Tau Chapter in Plaquemine.

26 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the 27 Legislature of Louisiana does hereby designate Tuesday, May 5, 2026, as Omega Psi Phi 28 Fraternity, Incorporated, Day at the state capitol; does hereby commend the brothers of 29 Omega Psi Phi for more than a century of distinguished service to the people of Louisiana

1 and the nation; and does hereby encourage the citizens of Louisiana to honor and celebrate 2 the enduring legacy of this great fraternity.
