BY SENATORS SEABAUGH, BARROW, BOUDREAUX, CATHEY, EDMONDS, HENRY, JENKINS, LUNEAU, MIGUEZ, PRESSLY, PRICE,
SELDERS AND STINE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commend Joe Horn on being inducted into the 2026 class of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.

WHEREAS, each year the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in Natchitoches, Louisiana collaborates with the Louisiana Sports Writers Association in selecting a limited number of sports figures who embody the character, skill, talent, and accomplishment worthy of being named to the Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, the 2026 Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame Induction Class includes Joe Horn; and

WHEREAS, Joe Horn, a dynamic and electrifying wide receiver, earned the admiration of fans and teammates alike through his remarkable playmaking ability, leadership, and passion for the game of football; and

WHEREAS, born in New Haven, Connecticut, on January 16, 1972, Horn rose to prominence in the National Football League and established himself as one of the most productive wide receivers in the history of the New Orleans Saints franchise; and

WHEREAS, Horn joined the Saints in 2000 as an unrestricted free agent after beginning his professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs and immediately made an impact, helping lead the Saints to the NFC West Division title and a playoff appearance in his first season with the team; and

compiled an extraordinary 523 receptions for 7,622 receiving yards and 50 touchdowns, placing him among the most accomplished receivers in franchise history; and

WHEREAS, Horn's fifty touchdown receptions broke the previous team record and helped establish him as one of the premier scoring threats in Saints history; and

WHEREAS, Horn set a franchise record with eleven touchdown receptions during the 2004 season and delivered one of the most memorable single-game performances in Saints history when he recorded four touchdown receptions against the New York Giants on December 21, 2004; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure with the Saints, Horn recorded 28 one-hundred yard receiving games, a team record at the time, and set a franchise single-season record with 94 receptions and 1,399 receiving yards in 2004; and

WHEREAS, from 2000 through 2002, Horn enjoyed one of the most productive stretches by a wide receiver in franchise history, averaging 88 receptions, 1,306 receiving yards, and eight touchdowns per season while earning selections to the Pro Bowl in each of those three seasons, as well as again in 2004; and

WHEREAS, Horn concluded a distinguished twelve-year NFL career with 603 receptions, 8,744 receiving yards, and 58 touchdowns while also spending time with the Atlanta Falcons; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his exceptional impact on the franchise and his beloved status among Saints fans, Horn was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 2010 during his first year of eligibility; and

WHEREAS, Horn's legacy continues in the next generation, as his son, Jaycee Horn, was selected in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers and has emerged as one of the league's promising defensive backs; and

WHEREAS, through his outstanding athletic achievements, charismatic personality, and dedication to the game of football, Joe Horn has left a lasting legacy with the New Orleans Saints and has brought pride and excitement to the fans of Louisiana.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend Joe Horn on being inducted into the 2026 class of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.
