HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 92

BY REPRESENTATIVE GADBERRY

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana Municipal Association.

WHEREAS, on January 28, 1926, mayors from cities, towns, and villages across Louisiana convened in Alexandria as the Louisiana Conference of Mayors to establish a unified voice for local government; this organization became the Louisiana Municipal Association (LMA); and

WHEREAS, the LMA was founded to foster cooperation and success among municipalities and to provide a forum for addressing matters of mutual concern affecting local government throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, for the past one hundred years, LMA municipalities have demonstrated dedication, integrity, and innovation in public service while promoting economic growth, civic engagement, infrastructure development, and quality of life for Louisiana communities; and

WHEREAS, the mission of the LMA is anchored in four pillars: education, service, training, and advocacy for its member mayors, related organizations, and affiliates; its mission serves to strengthen the effectiveness of municipal leadership statewide; and

WHEREAS, the LMA provides professional guidance, local government advocacy at the legislature, support from legislators across the state, and collaborative problem-solving with key local government partners to champion municipalities and respond to changing economic, environmental, infrastructure, and public service needs; and

WHEREAS, LMA municipalities continuously adapt to evolving challenges while upholding the principles of local self-governance, transparency, and accountability, which has established a lasting standard of excellence in municipal government.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana Municipal Association; does hereby recognize a century of service, progress, community leadership, and a unified voice for local government; and does hereby express enduring appreciation for its continuing mission of education, training, and advocacy.
