EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law requires the Secretary of State to annually submit to the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) Program a check against every registrant in the state voter registration system. The Department of State reports that proposed law codifies current practices of the department. The SAVE program is administered through the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Currently, there are no costs for state government agencies to verify citizenship status.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
