

1           WHEREAS, Sergeant First Class Moore was posthumously awarded the Silver Star
2 for his gallantry that day, and the Marines involved, including Corporal Boudreaux, were 3 recognized by their chain of command as having performed actions worthy of the highest 4 decorations; and

5           WHEREAS, Memorial Day is a solemn time to remember the fallen, honor those 6 who served, and recommit ourselves to the values of courage, sacrifice, and brotherhood that 7 define our nation's defenders; and

8           WHEREAS, Lane Boudreaux is a living hero of that day and continues to embody 9 those values more than fifty-seven years later.

10          THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 11 commend Lane "Frenchie" Boudreaux for his heroism and self-sacrifice on March 19, 1969, 12 in recovering the body of Sergeant First Class James H. Moore under enemy fire, and does 13 hereby express enduring appreciation for his dedicated service in defense of American 14 liberties.
