Provides for the Coordinated Use of Resources for Recreation, Economy, Navigation, and Transportation Authority. (8/1/26)

Current law provides for the Coordinated Use of Resources for Recreation, Economy, Navigation, and Transportation (CURRENT) Authority and the Red River Compact Commission. Proposed law updates references to the Department/Office of Public Works and chief resilience officer/director in current law to the Department of Transportation and Development (DOTD) and the secretary of DOTD. Proposed law changes the membership of the Red River Compact Commission from the chief engineer of DOTD to the secretary of DOTD. Proposed law updates references to upland areas to noncoastal areas. Proposed law clarifies that the CURRENT Authority should have responsibility over flood control, flood risk reduction, navigation, and floodplain and watershed management. Proposed law makes various adjustments to the 16 members who serve on the CURRENT Board.
