Provides relative to the authority of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget

Present law requires the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget (JLCB) to review and approve any new plan of benefits or the annual plan of benefits for the life, health, and other benefit programs offered through the Office of Group Benefits (OGB). Present law requires JLCB review and approval for any professional, personal, and social services contracts negotiated through the Office of Group Benefits.

Present law requires OGB's administrative rulemaking oversight committees, which present law designates as the House Committee on Appropriations and the Senate Committee on Finance, to review and approve any adjustments to those same contracts when the adjustment is one million dollars or greater. Proposed law reassigns the review and approval process from the oversight committees to JLCB.
