EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of the proposed legislation.

Proposed legislation authorizes the Division of Administration to review state contracts to determine whether they are held by foreign adversaries, foreign terrorist organizations, or their agents. Any additional workload associated with contract review or compliance activities is anticipated to be absorbed within existing resources.

Proposed legislation also repeals the contingent effective date provisions enacted in Act 670 of the 2024 RS and instead provides that the relevant provisions of law shall become effective on 8/01/26. Any fiscal impact associated with the implementation of those provisions was contemplated in the fiscal note prepared for Act 670 of the 2024 RS. Proposed legislation modifies the timing and mechanism by which the previously enacted law becomes operative.

REVENUE EXPLANATION
