

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 458 (SB 102)

2026 Regular Session

Pressly

New law provides a trade association may bring an action or intervene in an action in its own name or on behalf of one or more of its members, if it meets all of the following conditions:

- (1) It is primarily comprised of and controlled by a minimum of one hundred licensed motor vehicle dealers.
- (2) A minimum of one of its members holds a valid license as provided for by law and has standing to sue or intervene individually.
- (3) The interests the association seeks to protect are germane to its purpose.
- (4) Neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation of individual members.

New law provides a trade association prevailing pursuant to new law may be granted any of the following remedies: declaratory relief, injunctive relief, and reasonable costs and attorney fees.

New law provides an action by a trade association pursuant to new law may be brought before the commission or in any district court of competent jurisdiction.

Effective May 29, 2026.
