HB No. 134

Abstract: Provides that any person who has been involuntarily displaced from his place of residence or domicile by the effects of a gubernatorially declared state of emergency shall not be considered to have vacated his domicile or residence for purposes of qualifying for or holding office.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that notwithstanding any provision of present constitution or present law to the contrary, any person who has been involuntarily displaced from his place of residence or domicile by the effects of a gubernatorially declared state of emergency shall not be considered to have vacated his domicile or residence for purposes of qualifying for or holding office.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held February 4, 2006.
