

Strongly urges the La. secretary of state to make every extraordinary effort and to work with other state and federal agencies to contact individuals displaced by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita in order to provide them information relative to their voting rights and how to register to vote and vote in upcoming elections.