

Memorializes congress to combine the National Flood Insurance Program with a national catastrophe insurance program that includes a national wind insurance program.