Provides for setting aside prosecution and dismissal of certain cases upon successful completion of drug court probation

The proposed legislation provides that when a defendant has successfully completed all of the conditions of his probation set forth by a drug court probation program, his prosecution may be dismissed with the concurrence of the district attorney and have the effect of an acquittal, except in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant as a multiple offender as it relates to any other law or laws relating to cumulation of offenses.

The provisions of the proposed law are remedial and are to be applied retroactively.
