

New law provides that any person, in coordination with the state or its political subdivisions, who gratuitously and voluntarily renders any disaster relief or recovery services shall not be civilly liable for causing death or injury to a person or property, unless the damage was intentional or caused by a grossly negligent act of the provider.

New law shall not apply to any unlicensed person providing care for which a license is required.

Effective August 15, 2009.

(Adds R.S. 29:735.3.1)