

Existing law provides relative to the licensing standards of juvenile detention facilities and requires all juvenile detention facilities to be licensed pursuant to the provisions of existing law.

New law provides for the following:

- (1) The assessment of an annual licensing fee for all detention facilities.
- (2) Penalties for the operation of a juvenile detention facility without a valid license.
- (3) Authorizes DCFS to seek injunctive relief in addition to the penalties imposed by new law.
- (4) Authorizes DCFS to issue a written warning that includes a corrective action plan to any facility which operations in violation of new law and provides that the failure to implement such corrective action plan may result in the assessment of a civil fine not to exceed $250 per day, license revocation, or both; the aggregate of such civil fines shall not exceed $2,000 for any consecutive 12-month period.
- (5) Directs the department to adopt rules to provide factors for determining the type of sanctions imposed, to provide notice to the facility of any violation, and to provide for an appeal procedure including judicial review.
- (6) Creates the Juvenile Detention Licensing Fund where all civil fines collected pursuant to the provisions of new law shall be deposited and used for the education and training of employees, staff, or other personnel of juvenile detention facilities.
- (7) Requires any owner, operator, current or prospective employee, or volunteer of a juvenile detention facility to report whether or not his name is currently recorded on the state central registry for a justified finding of abuse or neglect.

Effective July 1, 2013.
