HB No. 207

Abstract: Authorizes each public postsecondary education management board to name a building at an institution under its supervision and management in honor of a living person.

Present law provides that no public building, public bridge, public park, public fish or game preserve, or public wildlife refuge owned by the state or by any political subdivision of the state or by any institution receiving its support in whole or in part from the state shall be named in honor of any living person, except as authorized or provided by law.

Present law provides generally for the powers, duties, and functions of public postsecondary education management boards. Proposed law authorizes each board to name a building at an institution under its supervision and management in honor of a living person pursuant to a policy adopted by the board. Provides that such policy may include criteria to be used for the naming of a building in honor of a living person.
