(2)(a) In addition, subject to the provisions of Paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) (5), and (6) of Subsection B of this Section, the secretary may issue special permits he finds essential and in the best interest of the state by reason of an emergency situation, unusual circumstances, natural catastrophes, or disasters affecting the transportation on the highways of the state of farm products in their natural state or forest products in their natural state. The weight limitations of any special farm or forest product permit so issued shall not exceed those set forth in Subsections B, C, D, E, F, and G of Section 386 of this Chapter; the gross weight of any combination of vehicles shall not exceed one hundred thousand pounds; and the length of any vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed seventy-five feet. Each such special farm or forest product permit shall be issued for designated routes.

(b) The secretary may establish and collect reasonable fees for each special farm or forest product permit issued. Permit fees shall be uniform for each classification of vehicle and/or and the purpose for which issued.
