DIGEST

Morrell (SB 191)

Present law relative to parochial and municipal elections in a parish containing a municipality with a population of 300,000 or more, requires elections for parochial and municipal offices and qualifying periods to be held every four years, beginning in 2006 as follows:

- (1) Primary elections for parochial and municipal officers will be held on the first Saturday in February of an election year.
- (2) General elections for parochial and municipal officers will be held on the fourth Saturday after the first Saturday in February of an election year.
- (3) The qualifying period for candidates in a primary election will start on the second Wednesday in December of an election year.
- (4) Special primary elections will be held on the first Saturday in February of an election year for parish and municipal officers in a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more.
- (5) Special general election shall be held on the fourth Saturday after the first Saturday in February in a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more, when the special primary election in such parish and municipality is held on the first Saturday in February of an election year for parish and municipal officers.
- (6) Bond, tax, or other election at which a proposition or question is to be submitted to the voters will be held for a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more, on the first Saturday in February or the fourth Saturday after the first Saturday in February in 1986 and every fourth year thereafter.

Proposed law changes the dates of election and qualifying periods beginning in 2015 as follows:

- (1) Primary elections for parochial and municipal officers will be held on the third Saturday in October of an election year.
- (2) General elections for parochial and municipal officers will be held on the fourth Saturday after the third Saturday in October of an election year.
- (3) The qualifying period for candidates in a primary election will start on the second Wednesday in August of an election year.

- (4) Special primary election will be held on the third Saturday in October of an election year for parish and municipal officers in a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more.
- (5) Special general election will be held on the fourth Saturday after the third Saturday in October in a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more, when the special primary election in such parish and municipality is held on the third Saturday in October of an election year for parish and municipal officers.
- (6) Bond, tax, or other election at which a proposition or question is to be submitted to the voters will be held for a parish containing a municipality with a population of three hundred thousand or more, on the third Saturday in October or the fourth Saturday after the third Saturday in October in 2017 and every fourth year thereafter.

Present law relative to parochial and municipal elections in a parish containing a municipality with a population of 300,000 or more, requires municipal and parochial officers to take office on the first Monday in May and each four years thereafter.

Proposed law changes the date municipal and parochial officers to take office to the third Monday in May beginning in 2022 and each four years thereafter.
