

Commends Israel upon the 65th anniversary of her independence, recognizes the friendship between Israel and La. and the contributions of Israel to humankind, and expresses support for the people of Israel and their right to defend themselves and to live in freedom.