HB No. 233

Abstract: Prohibits executive branch agencies funded through an appropriation bill from giving preferences in the delivery of state services based on the location of a citizen's residence.

Proposed law prohibits an executive branch agency which is funded through the general appropriation bill, ancillary appropriation bill, or any supplemental appropriation bill, from giving preference to or otherwise limiting access to services and other benefits based on the location of a citizen's residence.

Proposed law exempts agencies specifically authorized by law to give preference to or otherwise limit access to its services and benefits to citizens residing within a certain geographic area from the provisions of the proposed law.
