HB No. 468

Abstract: Requires the Department of Children and Family Services to respond to discovery requests in certain actions they have initiated to obtain certain orders relative to child support obligations.

Present law authorizes the Dept. of Children and Family Services to develop and implement a program of family support, including obtaining and modifying family and child support orders.

Proposed law retains present law and requires the department to respond to requests for discovery in actions the department has initiated pursuant to the family and child support program.
