DIGEST

Murray (SB 443)

Present law prohibits any employer, whether public or private, from intentionally discriminating against an employee on the basis of sex.

Present law prohibits employment discrimination against women who are state government employees, whether the discrimination is intentional or unintentional, and is known as the "Louisiana Equal Pay for Women Act".

Proposed law retains present law but makes the "Louisiana Equal Pay for Women Act" also applicable to local governments and political subdivisions.

Effective August 1, 2014.
