SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 19

BY SENATOR CORTEZ

CONDOLENCES. Expresses condolences upon the death of George Rodrigue, internationally renowned artist.

1 A RESOLUTION

2 To express the sincere condolences of the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana upon the 3 death of George Rodrigue, an internationally renowned artist, and to recognize his 4 contributions to the state of Louisiana.

5 WHEREAS, it is with deep regret and profound sorrow that the members of the 6 Louisiana Senate have learned of the death of artist George Rodrigue on Saturday, December 7 14, 2013, at the age of sixty-nine; and

8 WHEREAS, George Rodrigue was born on March 13, 1944, in New Iberia, where 9 he grew up as the only child of George and Marie Rodrigue; and 10 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue began painting as a child and evolved into one of the most 11 well-known and beloved artists in Louisiana history; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue studied art at Southwestern Louisiana University, now
13 the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, and the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena,
14 California, and returned home to Louisiana after his studies, where he settled in Lafayette 15 and embarked on an extraordinary career; and

16 WHEREAS, much of Mr. Rodrigue's work has roots in the Cajun world where he 17 was born and raised, and while he earned well-deserved acclaim for his portraits and 18 landscapes, as well as his fifteen-work series Saga of the Acadians, he was best known for

1 his Blue Dog paintings, which were inspired by a childhood story of the myth of the 2 loup-garou, a Cajun werewolf or ghost dog; and

3 WHEREAS, the Blue Dog is an artistic and cultural icon that is recognized the world
4 over; as Mr. Rodrigue himself is quoted saying in The New York Times in 1998, "People
5 who have seen a Blue Dog painting always remember it. They are really about life, about 6 mankind searching for answers"; and

7 WHEREAS, in addition to his artistic accomplishments, Mr. Rodrigue was 8 committed to giving back to his community through charitable and educational efforts; 9 through the George Rodrigue Foundation of the Arts, he raised millions of dollars for 10 post-Katrina New Orleans; and he held annual art contests for high school students that 11 awarded scholarships, art supplies, and other assistance to burgeoning Louisiana artists; and 12 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue's lifelong contributions to his homestate and to Southern 13 art cannot be overstated; he was commended many times for his singular achievements, 14 including his receipt of an award for outstanding service from the National Art Education 15 Association for his efforts on behalf of arts education and the Ogden Southern Museum of 16 Art's prestigious Opus Award, which is given annually to a member of the arts community 17 whose life's work constitutes a major contribution to the cultural landscape of the South; and

18 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue was not a native of New Orleans but was an adopted son 19 of the city, where he made a significant impact on the people and culture and where his 20 studio is a treasured landmark in the French Quarter; and

21 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue's body of work is highly regarded not only in Louisiana 22 but throughout the United States and the world; he is the subject of numerous books that 23 have been published nationally and internationally; his original paintings and silkscreens are 24 displayed in galleries in Carmel, California, and Lafayette and New Orleans, Louisiana; his 25 work is featured in permanent collections throughout the nation, including the George Bush
26 Presidential Library and Museum in Houston and the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, 27 D.C.; and he had record-breaking career retrospective exhibitions at the Dixon Gallery and 28 Gardens Museum in Memphis, Tennessee, and the New Orleans Museum of Art; and

29 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue's work will remain an inspiration for its unique 30 celebration of American life and culture, particularly with respect to the state of Louisiana

1 and the South; and

2 WHEREAS, Mr. Rodrigue's survivors include his wife, Wendy, and two sons, 3 Jacques and Andre; and

4 WHEREAS, although the death of George Rodrigue has created a tremendous void,
5 he will always be remembered as a true American master and will continue to be a source 6 of deep pride for all who knew and loved him, especially his family, his friends, and the 7 people of Louisiana, who will forever cherish him, his work, and his legacy.

8 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana
9 does hereby express sincere and heartfelt condolences upon the death of George Rodrigue, 10 one of Louisiana's most respected and admired citizens and an internationally renowned 11 artist, and does hereby recognize and record for posterity the special place he holds in the 12 annals of art history in the state of Louisiana and throughout the world.

13 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 14 family of George Rodrigue.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Jerry J. Guillot.
