HB No. 1103

Abstract: Prevents recovery of bodily injury damages and property damages arising from a motor vehicle accident for an owner or operator who fails to maintain compulsory motor vehicle liability security.

Present law provides that there is no recovery for the first $15,000 of bodily injury damage and the first $25,000 of property damage arising out of a motor vehicle accident for an owner or operator who fails to maintain compulsory motor vehicle liability security.

Proposed law provides that there is no recovery of either bodily injury damage or property damage arising out of a motor vehicle accident for an owner or operator who fails to maintain compulsory motor vehicle liability security.
