Present law designates certain crimes as "crimes of violence". Proposed law adds domestic abuse aggravated assault to the list of crimes of violence. Present law provides that an offender may only be placed on probation for a commission of domestic abuse battery if he is required to participate in a court-approved domestic abuse "prevention" program. Proposed law amends present law to provide that the offender shall be required to participate in a "court-approved domestic abuse intervention program". Present law provides that a person convicted of a second offense domestic abuse battery shall be imprisoned for not less than 60 days nor more than six months. Proposed law increases the term of imprisonment to not less than 60 days nor more than one year and provides that it shall be served with or without hard labor. Clarifies that this designation as domestic violence is for purposes of any civil or criminal proceeding authorized by law. EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in an indeterminable increase in state general fund expenditures as it increases the term of imprisonment for a person convicted of a second offense domestic abuse battery. Present law provides that a person convicted of a second offense domestic abuse battery shall be imprisoned for not less than 60 days nor more than six months. Proposed law increases the term of imprisonment to not less than 60 days nor more than one year and provides that it shall be served with or without hard labor.

The exact fiscal impact of the passage of this legislation is indeterminable, since it is not known how many individuals will be convicted of this crime. However, any offender sentenced to the custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections increases expenditures by $24.39 per day per offender in local facilities. Therefore, the cost to the state would be $8,902 annually ($24.39 per day, per offender x 365 days).

To the extent that offenders are housed in state facilities, the cost per day, per offender is $52.51.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
