DIGEST

John Smith (SB 207)

Present law provides for a special fund within the Employment Security Administration Fund (i.e., the fund in which employers deposit their unemployment insurance taxes).

Present law provides that monies from the special fund are to be used only for the purpose of upgrading employee job skills through training.

Present law provides that training is to be done by a third-party training provider selected by the applicant and approved pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the Louisiana Workforce Commission.

Proposed law provides that third-party training may be provided by a Louisiana college or university.

Proposed law provides that a Louisiana college or university may subcontract with an out-of-state college or university to provide third-party training so long as the training takes place on the campus of a Louisiana college or university or job site.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 23:1514(D)(1))
