Subject: Parole Eligibility

PAROLE EG DECREASE GF EX See Note Page 1 of 1
Reduces length of time that must be served by certain offenders before becoming parole eligible

Present law provides that a person convicted of a crime of violence and not otherwise ineligible for parole shall serve at least 85% of the sentence imposed before being eligible for parole.

Proposed law changes present law to provide that a person convicted of a crime of violence and not otherwise ineligible for parole shall serve 75% of the sentence imposed before being eligible for parole. The provisions of this Act shall have prospective application only and shall only apply to persons convicted on or after the effective date of the Act.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in an indeterminable decrease in state general fund expenditures as a result of amending the parole eligibility for parole eligible offenders convicted of violent crimes. The exact fiscal impact of the passage of this legislation is indeterminable, since the legislation allows parole eligible offenders convicted of violent crimes to become parole eligible earlier and it is not known how many offenders will be granted parole. However, any offender released from a correctional facility and placed on parole supervision decreases expenditures of the Department of Corrections by $21.85 ($24.39 per day - $2.54 parole supervision per day) per day per offender in local facilities. To the extent that offenders are released from state facilities, the decrease per day per offender is $49.97 ($52.51 per day - $2.54 parole supervision per day).

Savings are more likely to be incurred for offenders housed at the local level due to state facilities backfilling beds in a more timely manner. Any savings may also be reduced by recidivism.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in an indeterminable increase in self-generated revenue as a result of offenders convicted of violent crimes becoming parole eligible earlier, thus being released into parole supervision. For each offender that is released to parole at an earlier date, the Department of Corrections could collect up to $63 per month from each offender under parole supervision. It should be noted that the maximum amount paid per month is $63 and the offender's ability and amount he is required to pay is determined by the Board of Parole.
