

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 110

BY SENATORS CROWE, ADLEY, ALARIO, ALLAIN, AMEDEE, APPEL, BROOME, BROWN, BUFFINGTON, CHABERT, CLAITOR, CORTEZ, DONAHUE, DORSEY-COLOMB, ERDEY, GALLOT, GUILLORY, HEITMEIER, JOHNS, KOSTELKA, LAFLEUR, LONG, MARTINY, MILLS, MORRELL, MORRISH, MURRAY, NEVERS, PEACOCK, PERRY, PETERSON, RISER, GARY SMITH, JOHN SMITH, TARVER, THOMPSON, WALSWORTH, WARD AND WHITE

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To express the sincere and heartfelt condolences of the Legislature of Louisiana upon the death of Dr. James Larry Crain, former Southeastern Louisiana University President, former state commissioner of higher education, and former secretary of the Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism.

WHEREAS, it is with great sadness that the citizens and the Legislature of Louisiana have learned of the death of Dr. J. Larry Crain on February 2, 2014, at age seventy-nine; and

WHEREAS, a native of Washington Parish he taught science and coached basketball at Varnado High School before leaving to go to Southeastern Louisiana University (SLU) as a professor of Biology; and

WHEREAS, Larry Crain met Edwin Edwards in 1970 when Crain was an assistant professor of biology at SLU, he heard Edwards speak and was so impressed with him that he introduced Edwards throughout Washington Parish; Edwards went on to win the gubernatorial election in 1976 and asked Crain to serve as deputy secretary, and later secretary, of the state Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Larry Crain went on to serve as Southeastern Louisiana University's president from 1980 to 1986 before becoming system president for the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities, which is now known as the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System; and

WHEREAS, current SLU President John L. Crain, described Dr. J. Larry Crain as the one who "led the university at a pivotal time in its history during the 1980s and played a key role in transforming the institution from a small, sleepy college into one of the state's major regional universities, he will be remembered for his efforts to enhance the academic stature of the university during the 'oil bust' years that impacted the state's economy and severely affected the funding of higher education as well as other state services, he will be remembered as a man of integrity, who was committed to higher education and historic preservation"; and

WHEREAS, in December 1993, following a contentious deadlock between supporters of Governor Edwin Edwards and appointees of former Governor Buddy Roemer, the Board of Regents named Dr. James Larry Crain as the state's higher education commissioner; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Larry Crain was an avid collector with an interest in history, particularly the Civil War and Southern architecture, culture and genealogy; he was a member of the Civil War Roundtable, serving as the group's president; and he had "perhaps the finest collection in the world" of U.S. Martial single-shot pistols; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Crain spent years restoring a dogtrot-style house on his grandfather's homestead in State Line, including a functioning syrup mill, blacksmith shop, and barn; and

WHEREAS, he was a loving husband to his wife of fifty-seven years, Jean Lott Crain, (a very successful retired nurse and operating room supervisor who died just a few weeks after him on February 19, 2014) and a cherished father, grandfather, great-grandfather and relative whose love of family was of the utmost importance to him in his life; and

WHEREAS, the success of the state of Louisiana, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of American society depends, in great measure, upon the dedication of people like Dr. J. Larry Crain who dedicate themselves and their lives to education, and to making Louisiana a better place for future generations.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby honor the extraordinary life and numerous accomplishments and many achievements of Dr. J. Larry Crain for the betterment of education and for Louisiana.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the family of Dr. J. Larry Crain.

---

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

---

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES