EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no direct material impact on governmental expenditures as a result of this bill.

An official with the St. Charles Parish Assessor’s Office indicated that this bill would not affect the current operations of the taxing authorities within the parish; thus, there is no impact on payroll, processing, or other related costs. According to this official, most of the taxing authorities within the parish are unable to provide the required millage information by the current deadline of June 1, but they all provide the information by the proposed deadline of September 1.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no direct material impact on governmental revenues as a result of this bill.
