Provides relative to an award of visitiation rights. (8/1/14)

Present law provides that a grandparent not granted custody of a child may be granted reasonable visitation rights if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child. Proposed law retains present law but removes phrase "not granted custody of a child". Proposed law is effective August 1, 2014.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The proposed legislation removes the phrase "not granted custody of a child" from present law. Removing this phrase will not impact governmental expenditures, as this measure is not anticipated to change court procedures in child custody proceedings.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
