

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 178

BY SENATOR JOHNS

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To create a study committee to study and make recommendations with respect to the implementation of the FDA Food Safety Modernization Act.

WHEREAS, approximately forty-eight million people, or one in six Americans, get sick, one hundred twenty-eight thousand are hospitalized, and three thousand die each year from foodborne diseases, according to recent data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; and

WHEREAS, this is a significant public health burden that is largely preventable; and

WHEREAS, Louisiana has a world-renowned culture known for its unique cuisine and products and a deep commitment to safety and quality; and

WHEREAS, the economic contribution of Louisiana agriculture and agricultural products is valued at over $12 billion; and

WHEREAS, the passage of the FDA Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA) created historic changes in food safety law on a national scale by authorizing increased enforcement capability for the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA), creating more accountability for farmers, and mandating enhanced partnerships between the FDA, the United States Department of Agriculture, and state and local regulatory authorities; and

WHEREAS, Louisiana has significantly expanded the economic potential of the local food economy through its farmers and ranchers; and

WHEREAS, the FSMA builds a formal system of collaboration with other government agencies, both domestic and foreign, in recognition that all food safety agencies need to work together in an integrated way to achieve our public health goals.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby create a study committee, composed of members as hereinafter provided, to study and make recommendations to the legislature with respect to the implementation of the FDA Food Safety Modernization Act.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the study committee shall be composed of the following members:

(1) The assistant secretary of the office of public health of the Department of Health and Hospitals or his designee.
