EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation will increase self-generated revenue for the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals. The court would charge a $50 filing fee on civil motions that are not subject to another fee. These civil filings include: motion to reinstate oral argument, motion to supplement the record, motion to dismiss, motion to remand, motion to suspend, motion to withdraw, and motion to enroll. The court recorded 473 of these filings in 2012 and 370 in 2013, an average of 422 filings [(473 in 2012 + 370 in 2013) / 2]. To the extent the court receives an average of 422 civil filings per year in future fiscal years, the court would generate $21,100 per year (422 civil filings x $50 fee).
