

Prior law provided for the Lakeview Crime Prevention District.

Prior law provided for a parcel fee to be imposed on all improved parcels in the district, as provided by duly adopted resolution of the board of commissioners of the district and after approval by a majority of the registered voters of the district.

Prior law provided that notwithstanding prior law, upon approval at a 2010 election, the parcel fee shall be assessed on all parcels, improved and unimproved.

New law clarifies that a fee is imposed on each and every parcel located within the district, whether such parcel is improved or unimproved.

Prior law provided for the parcel fee to expire no later than the end of calendar year 2014.

New law provides for the fee to expire not later than December 31, 2026.

New law provides that the fee may be renewed to expire not later than December 31, 2036.

Effective upon signature of the governor (June 9, 2014).
