

Urges and requests the office of conservation, DNR, to study and review the statutes and the department's rules, regulations, and orders providing for the plugging and abandonment of wells.