

New law establishes Aug. 7 as "Purple Heart Recognition Day", an annual state holiday to be observed in recognition of those members of the armed forces of the U.S. who have earned the Purple Heart Medal for wounds received in combat.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.

(Adds R.S. 1:58.6)