

Recognizes May 9, 2014, as Provider Appreciation Day and encourages recognition of the work of education and care providers of children, including licensed child care providers.